

Who Am I ?

Here at Paradise Wildlife Park I live with my friend. I sleep during the day in a manmade hollow, in the Woodland Walk, but wake up to explore my enclosure at night. In the wild, I sleep in natural burrows or a den. I eat small rabbits, fruit and berries.

I am a _____

Here at Paradise Wildlife Park I roam around in a large area, or go in my great shelter. People can look at me from a viewing gallery. In the wild I roam countryside areas of North West Spain, Italy and Portugal with a few others. I hunt deer, rabbits and eat berries if I get too hungry!

I am a _____

Here at Paradise Wildlife Park they have built a new area for me to live. It's humid, tropical and like a rainforest. I live there in the trees with my large family group.

In the wild I inhabit rainforests of central South America where in the humid climate I swing in the trees.
